Vak Varjú

restaurant

DEAR GUEST,

Thank you for visiting us!

Óbuda has always had a special relationship with hospitality. In the old cobblestone streets, almost every corner had a cozy tavern where people gathered not just to eat, but to meet, chat, and pause for a moment. It is this welcoming, classic bourgeois atmosphere that we aim to carry forward in this unique corner of Óbuda.

A restaurant stood where we are today long before us. We set out to bring this place back to life in our own way—with a signature VakVarjú twist—creating a warm, true nest worthy of this neighborhood. In size, it is the smallest nestling in our restaurant family, but the VakVarjú heart inside beats just as strong: bringing the exact same warm hospitality, care, and experience that our guests have come to know and love.

Alongside our beloved VakVarjú classics, our chef's specials highlight domestic ingredients and artisan products from our trusted local suppliers—our CrowFarmers. Because a great dish carries more than just flavor—it carries a story, especially when we know where the ingredients came from and the dedicated hands behind them.

With our wonderfully cozy terrace, kid's corner, live piano music in the evenings, and the dishes set before you, we will do our utmost to ensure you don't just feel like you've visited a restaurant, but found a place you can't wait to return to.

Because every day, our goal is simple:
to make sure our guests leave even happier than when they arrived.

The VakVarjú Kiscelli Team

OUR "CROWFARMERS PANTRY PROGRAM" CONTINUES!

Our goal is to ensure that the plates and glasses are filled with as many Hungarian products from local farmers as possible!

"As a Hungarian restaurant, it's important for us to collaborate with more and more local producers, standing by them as a reliable and long-term business partner, providing them with a dependable and predictable source of income, as well as opportunities for development and growth. While we prepare our dishes and drinks from the finest and most delicious products, we can also showcase many talented and passionate farmers working in our country."

Rudolf Semsei, owner

Look for the CrowFarmers symbols on our menu, and you can be sure you are consuming 100% Hungarian products from Hungarian farmers!
